WALAM OLUM

montville high school oakdale, conn.

Sometimes it's hard
to express
one's deep appreciation
to people for what
they have done for you —
for their dependable
helping hand
extended in your
direction to guide you
through difficulties
and in making the
right decisions.

There are many times
in a person's life
when he doesn't know
exactly how to say
"thank you"

for everything someone
has done for him.

The class of '71

feels this way
about the continuous
help and time

our advisors,

Mr. Robert Lamperelli

and Mr. Kenneth Rawn,

have given to this class

throughout our

high school years.

It's not easy to express

our gratitude

but we thought that

dedicating

our senior yearbook

to you would be

the way to show

our sincere appreciation

and to express

that "thank you"

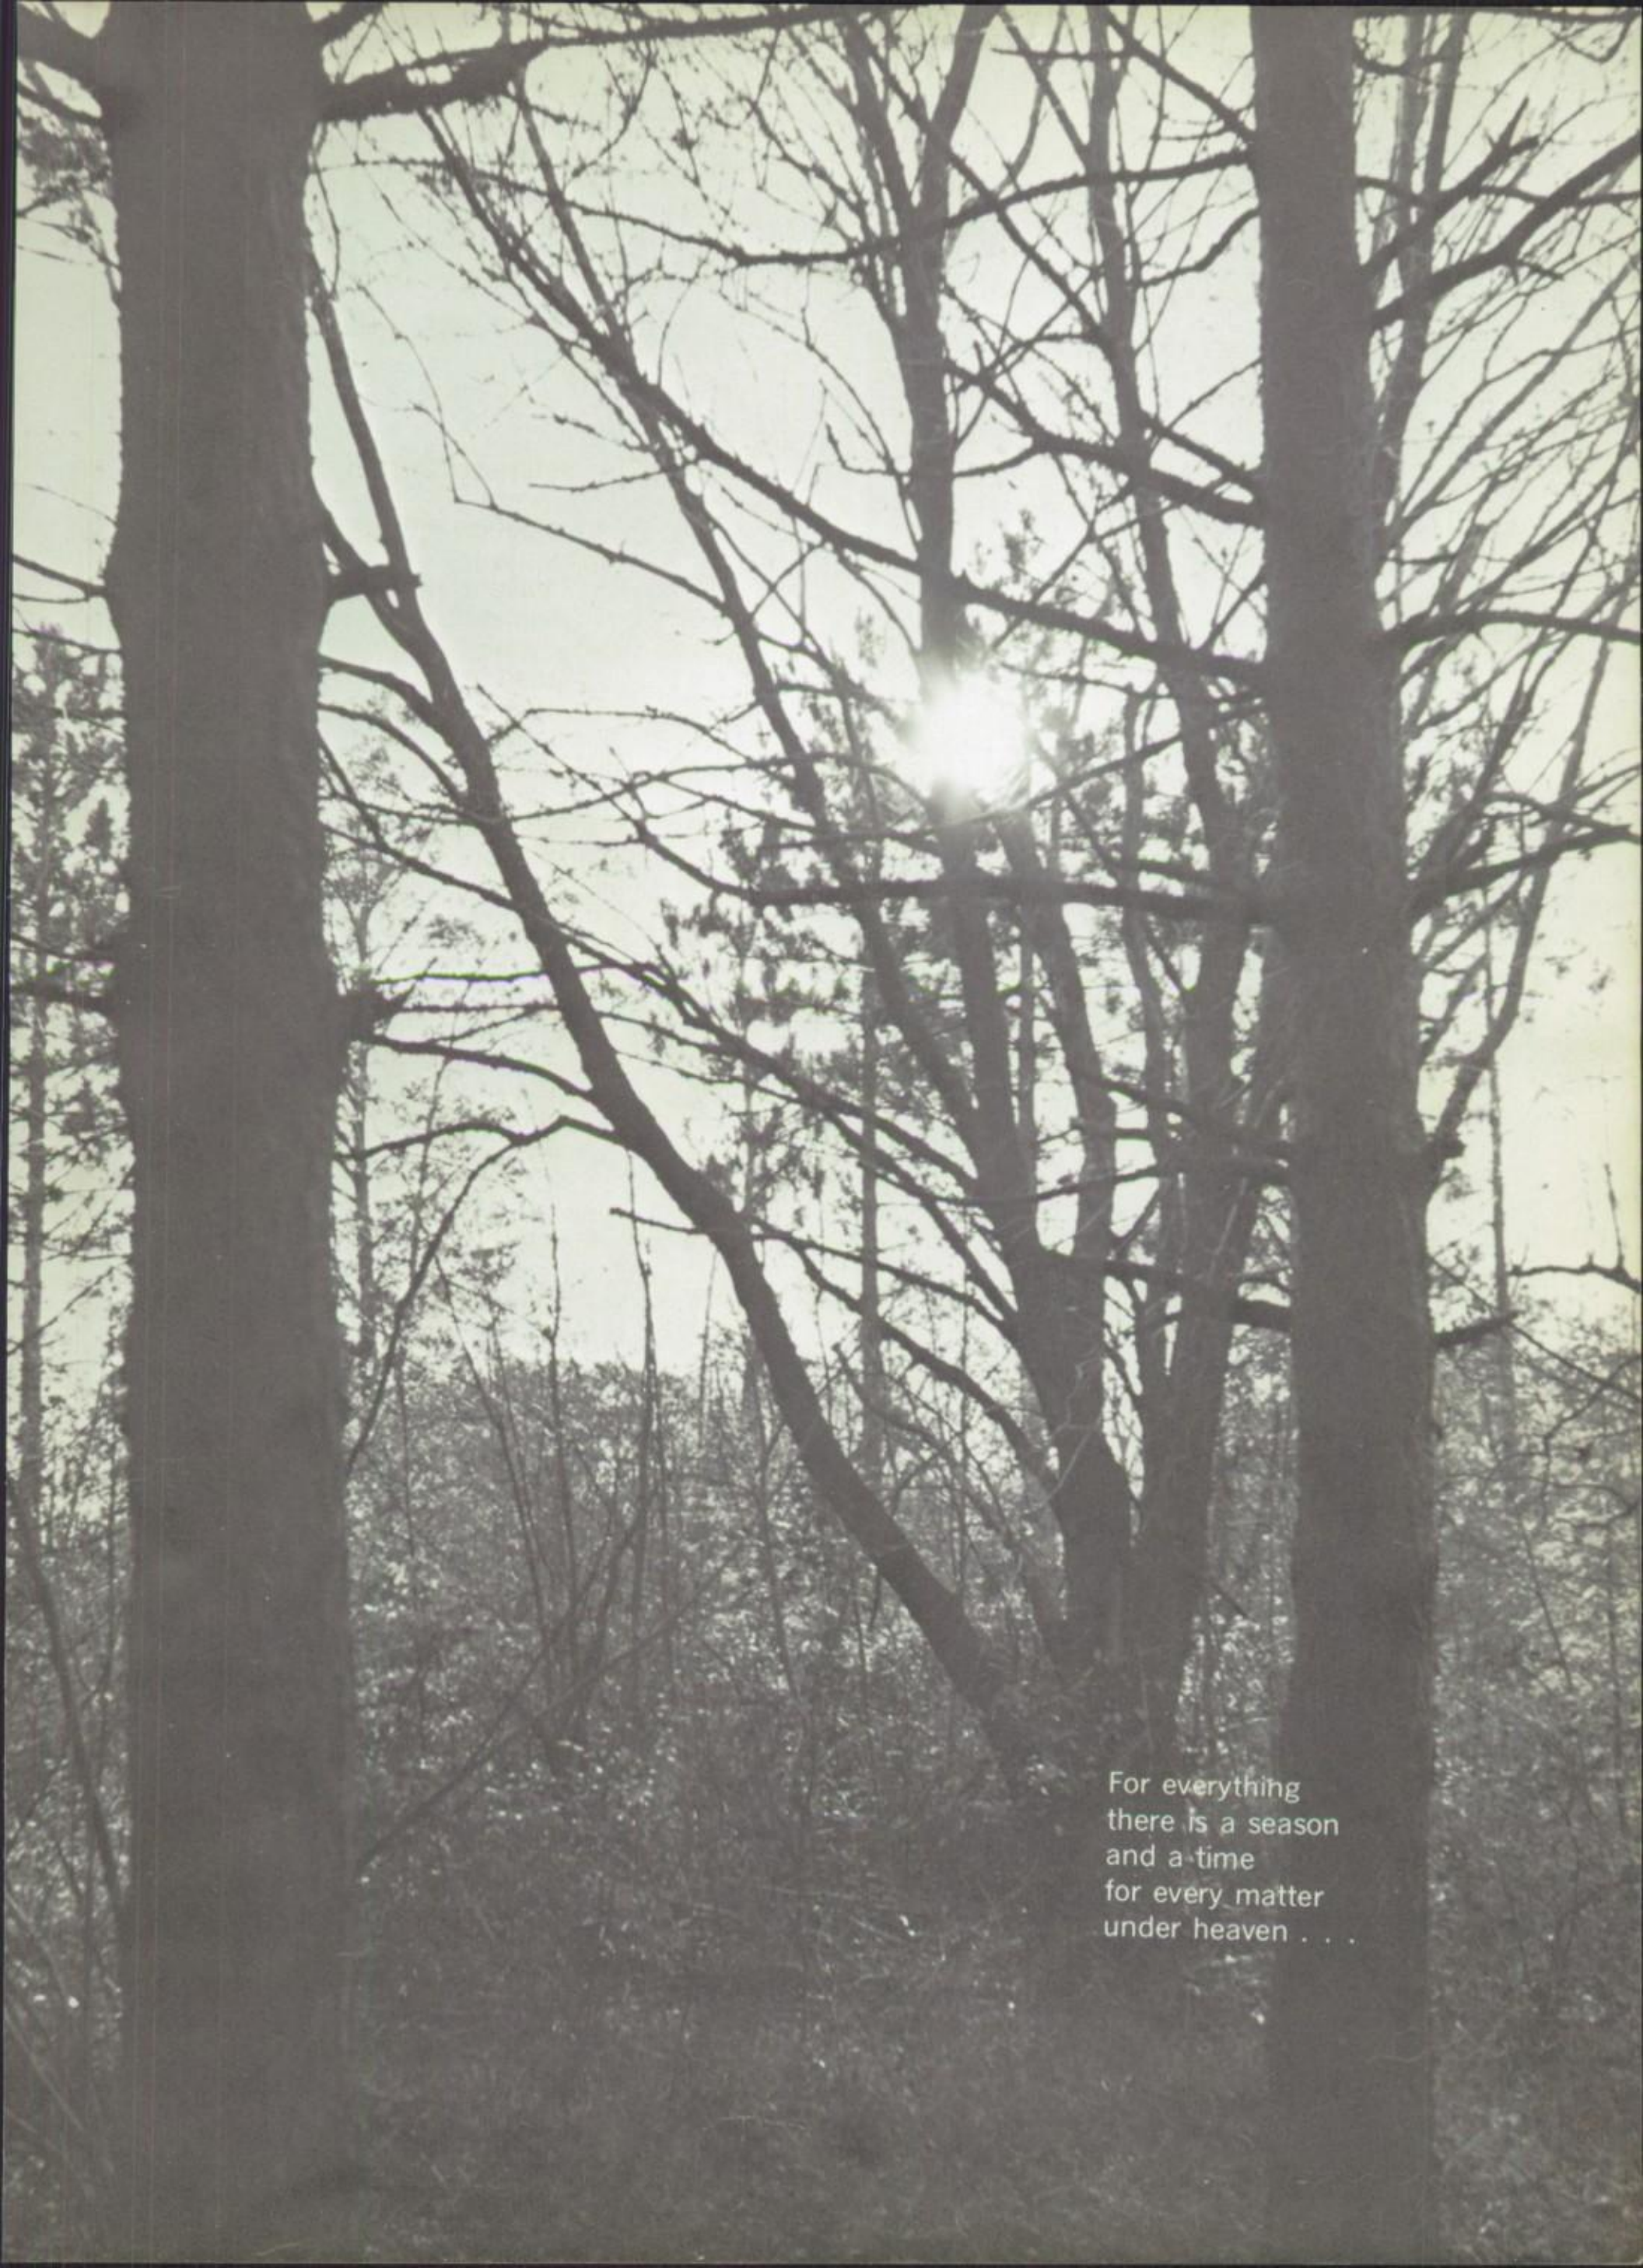

which we don't exactly

know how to say

for everything you have done for our class . . .

A low-angle photograph looking up at a dense canopy of bare, dark tree branches against a bright, hazy sky. The sun is visible as a bright, glowing orb partially obscured by the branches in the upper center of the frame. The overall tone is contemplative and serene.

For everything
there is a season
and a time
for every matter
under heaven . . .

A time to keep silence

A time to speak

A time to break down

A time to build up

ROMEO

The Junior Prom!
It was a perfect night.
Dinner at the 95 House.
Pictures taken, and —
the turning of our rings —
reaching our step — a senior.
Tomorrow will be our first
step as a senior.
Also it will be the step
to an end . . .

AND JULIET

HOMEcoming

A clash of cymbals,
 A swish of shakers
 and the Homecoming game began.
 October 24th against Plainfield.
 Montville won its first Homecoming game.
 Halftime festivities began.
 The band played on.
 The Baton Club twirled away.
 Three girls awaited
 the decision for Homecoming queen.
 Karen? Sandy? Brenda?
 The spell is broken.
 Brenda reigns!
 On with the dance!

Surprise . . .

Homecoming is . . .

The reunion of Alumni . . .

The Queen Brenda Harris and her court; Karen Edgley, Sandy Santangelo, Linda Little, Judy Nelson, Cheryl Crandall, reigning over "Indian Festival."

RALLY

The never-ending spirit
of the Sophomores.

The master twirling of the Senior Baton.

The rampaging Seniors cheering on to victory.

The varsity heroes thinking of future winnings.

J.V. team spirited with a look of confidence.

SANTA MEETS
WOMEN'S LIB

What happens when Mrs. Claus decides she's taken the back seat of the sleigh too long? She joins Women's Lib and tries to oust Santa from his seat as King of Christmas. You can't fool children, and Santa triumphed in a special election, preserving the Christmas male image.

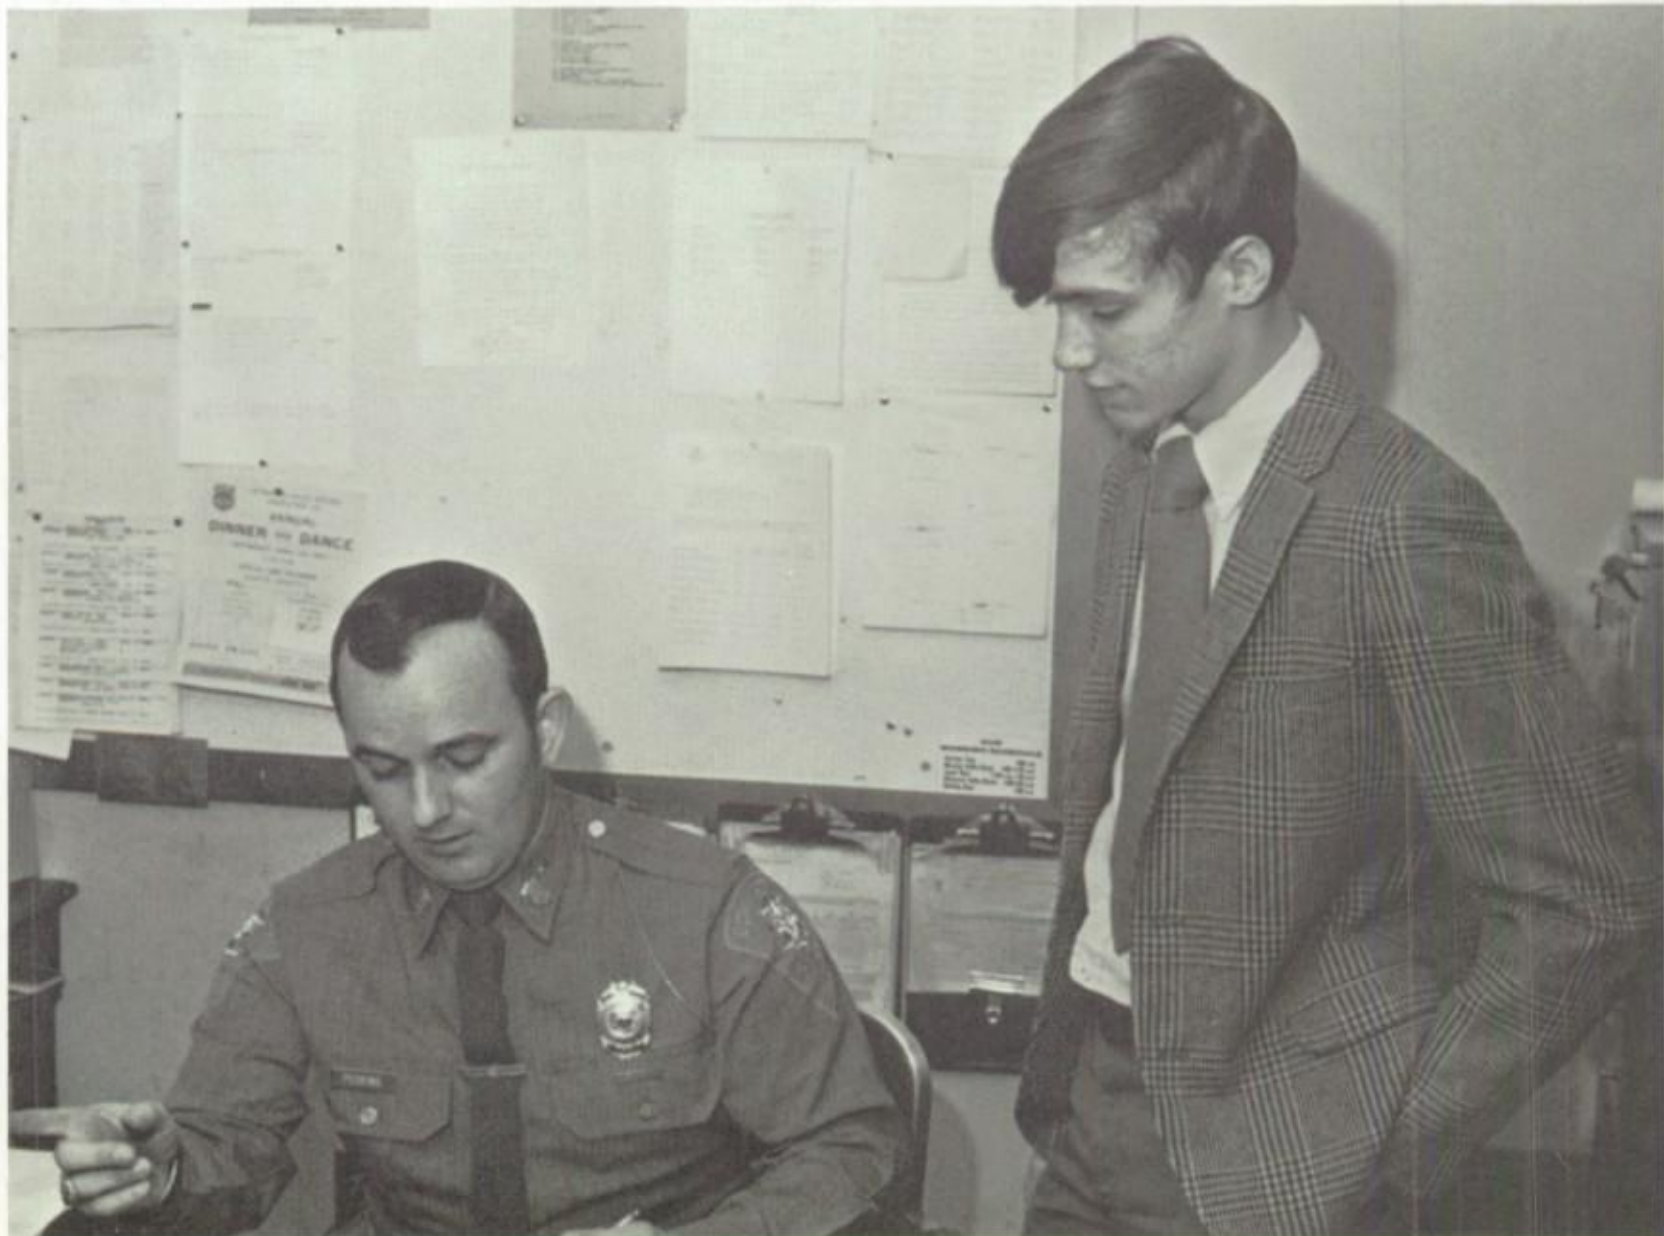

Sterling performances were turned in by Bob Chabot as Santa, Janis Schowerer as Mrs. Santa, Bob Shulesko and Dave Lee as Santa's campaign managers, and Brenda Wiltout as Mrs. Claus' campaign manager.

The show was superbly directed and produced by Mrs. J. Pierce.

CIAC Tourney Montville 67 St. Joseph 82

The Mighty Midgets boasted a 15 win, 5 loss record during the 1970-71 basketball season.

Against Lyman on December 30, Scott Pomazon set a new total point record by scoring 35 out of the 84 points, giving Montville its fifth win. He then went on to break that record by scoring 40 points against Windham Tech on February 5, contributing to the new game scoring record of 111 points.

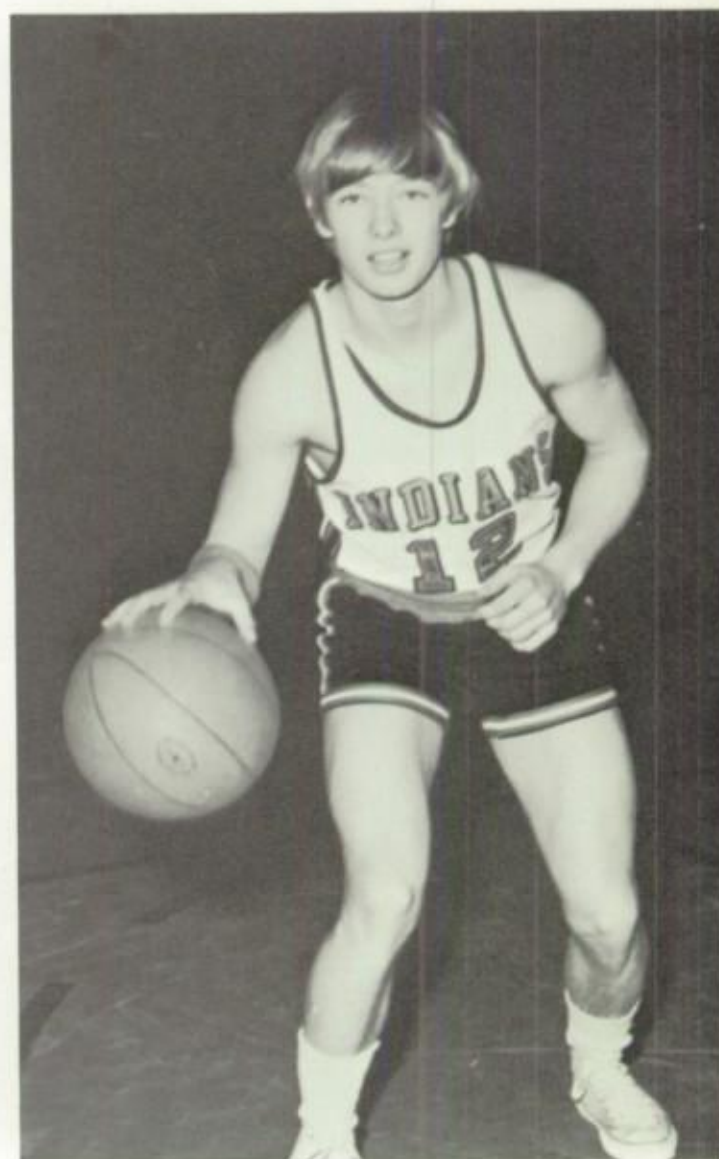

Another honor given to a member of the team was the most valuable player trophy awarded to Mike Dodge during the Plainfield Tourney.

Winning the game against Norwich Tech qualified the Midgets to compete in the CIAC Tourney, a first in the history of the school. Even though the boys gave everything they had, St. Joseph's outscored them, thus ending the Mighty Midgets' record-breaking season.

WRESTLING

In Wrestling, the forgotten sport, MHS produced its best wrestling team in the history of the school. Special congratulations go to Gary Lietkowski, contender in State Finals and champion in the 185 pound weight class.
